The Strand Theatre announces auditions for Rodgers & Hammerstein's A Grand Night for Singing. Taste and imagination, the two key ingredients for a first-rate revue, abound in this fresh take on the Rodgers & Hammerstein canon, conceived by Tony Award winner Walter Bobbie. Over three decades after the duo's final collaboration, The Sound of Music, took Broadway by storm, this new R&H musical opened the 1994 Broadway season with flair and distinction, garnering wildly enthusiastic notices and earning two Tony nominations, including Best Musical.

Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein may never have imagined "Shall We Dance?" as a comic pas de deux for a towering beauty and her diminutive admirer, nor might they have suspected that one day a lovelorn young lad might pose the musical question, "How do you solve a problem like Maria?" But that's precisely the kind of invention lavished upon this new revue, with innovative musical arrangements, including a sultry Andrews Sisters-esque "I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Outa My Hair," a swingin' "Honeybun" worthy of the Modernaires, and a jazzy "Kansas City," proving how terrifically up-to-date the remarkable songs of R&H remain.

A Grand Night for Singing will be presented April 10, at 7:00pm, and April 11, at 2:00pm. Cassie Majetich will direct, and Michael Murphy will serve as music director.

Auditions will be held Monday, February 2, at 6:30pm at the Strand. Please prepare 16-32 bars of a song from any Rodgers & Hammerstein musical. You can gender-bend your song selection. An accompanist will be provided OR you can bring a karaoke track. If necessary, callbacks will take place on Wednesday, February 4, at 6:30 pm. Audition ages are 16 and older. There are opportunities for solos, duets, and ensemble members! Rehearsals will begin the week of February 9 and run three evenings each week for approximately 2-3 hours per rehearsal. A complete schedule will be created following auditions and distributed at the first rehearsal. Please visit www.strandtheatrewv.com/gns for character descriptions and complete audition details. Contact Cassie Majetich at cassandra.majetich@strandtheatrewv.com with questions.
